

Pictures of Providence and Events

Photos of Providence Beautification Events and News paper articles.

Providence residents were very much involved in making our city look beautiful. The Providence City was kept litter free. They were presented with many awards and certificates throughout the 70's for the Beautification of our City.

PROVIDENCE JUNIOR Dairy Princess Jet Vothweg, center, with her attendants Leah Ruckler, left and Kendra Bowers, were chosen by lot from a parade of adorable four year old girls.

They will ride on the Dairy Days Float in the parade on May 23. This event was sponsored by Providence City and was under the direction of the LaDessa Club.

PROVIDENCE ROYALTY will compete in the Cache Dairy Princess Pageant on May 22. From the left are Alice Zollinger, first attendant; Pam Bear, Dairy Princess; and Deanne Jones, second attendant. At the event which was held at Rosalia Manor, the program was presented by Yvonne Darby, Brad Pickett and Arthur Olsen. Mrs. Marie Jorgensen, Mrs. Jackie Dunn and Darrell Rigby were judges.

For many years Providence had their own Royalty. The Providence Dairy Princess pageant was held and the royalty was chosen. They represented Providence by riding on floats during many parades throughout the valley. Dairy Darlings were the little girls that also rode on the floats. Here are some pictures from the past:

Throughout the years Providence had needed new equipment to get the work done. Here are some photos on new equipment

View Slideshow

Providence has had some GORGEOUS old barns in town. Most of them are no longer here, but here are some fun photos for those “Old Barn” lovers:

View Slideshow

Providence has and has had some great businesses. Here are some that were in town throughout the years:

Here is a picture of the beautiful view of Edgewood Hall.

Can you tell me what this was used for?

View Slideshow