2024 FYE BUDGET

Budget Executive Summary

These budget documents supply Providence City residents with key information for understanding the allocation of revenue resources and added clarity

Budget Approach

The budget approach that Providence City uses to determine the levels of expenditure is an initial evaluation on expected revenue followed by an outlined

All Funds

- We expect health insurance costs to increase by around 8% due to a consistently rising cost of healthcare.
- Employee contribution to health insurance cost will maintain at the same percentage as set forth in prior approved budgets.
- We anticipate a 9% increase in salary (6% COLA / 3% Merit), which we believe to be in line with other like organizations and the CPI (Consumer Price Index).

General Fund

- Most revenue is expected to climb by around 2% except the following:
 - Sales Tax to incline by 8% based on potential increase from a growing economy.
 - B&C Road money expected to rise by 3% due to added roads to Providence City due to annexation and increased state allotment.
 - Property tax is based on an increase in new growth. The property tax rate over time is expected to decline until we reach approximately the median in the Cache Valley, at which time we expect to hold the property tax rate.
- Most expenses are expected to climb by around 3%
- Decrease 10% in Municipal Telephone License Tax, due to the decline in landline usage.
- Add a part-time position to work on Code Compliance

General Fund Capital Projects

- We expect to use RAPZ (Recreation, Arts, Parks, and Zoo) funds to build new pickleball courts in Zollinger park this year.
- Various implementations of the Parks, Trails, and Recreation Master Plan
- Various implementations of the Transportation Master Plan

Budget Executive Summary

- While we have made significant progress, we will continue our plan to update the city fleet. In FYE 2022 our average and median vehicle was over 15 years old.

Water Fund Capital Projects

- Culinary water revenue maintains a similar level to prior years.
- Looking to drill 2 test wells and a production well
- In coordination with our streets project we will continue to address areas of need, identified in the Water Master Plan

Sewer Fund Capital Projects

- Southwest Sewer Extension - Design was started in FYE 2023, but may continue into FYE 2024
- Southwest Sewer Extension - Initial construction is expected to start this year.

Storm Water Fund Capital Projects

- 10th South 400 East beautification
- Impact Fee Facility Plan / Analysis
- We are building a reserve in the next few years so that we can start our Storm water upgrades.

Operational Budget Notes

- In order to improve our opportunities to receive more grant funds we are planning to continue exploring new grant opportunities.

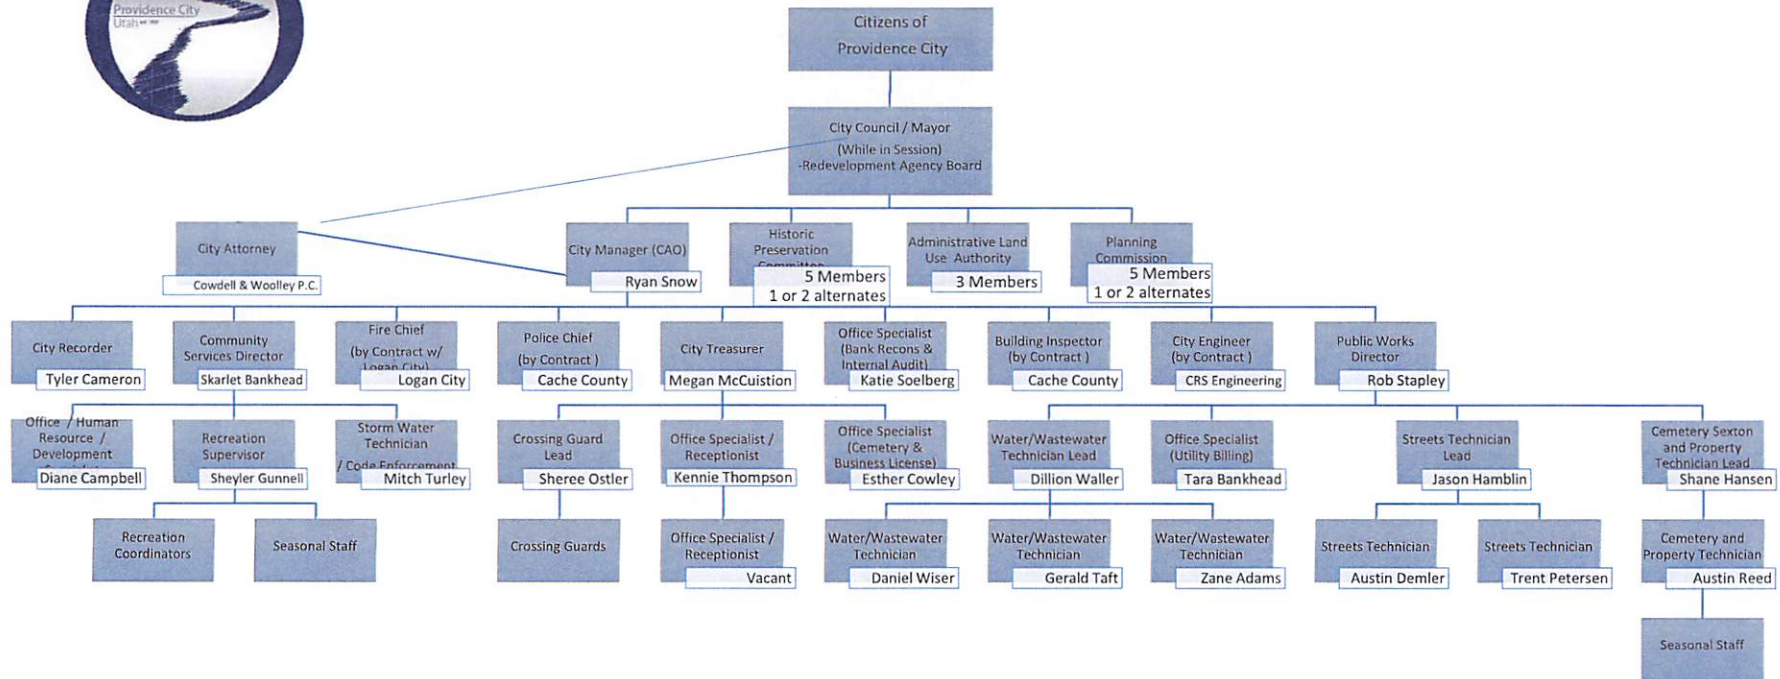

Grant Funds

- We do not budget for grants because of their future uncertainty and because these revenues will have their own directly related costs of approximately the same amounts.

In summary, this budget outlines a forward thinking and sustainable path to carry us through the upcoming years. If anyone has any questions about this budget, please contact Providence City Administration at 435-752-9441 or send an email to ryansnow2@providence.utah.gov

- Achieve Healthy City Designation

Status

An emergency preparedness website has been created. Flyers and magnets are designed and ready to print once the budget has been approved.

No new multi-family housing zoning has been approved in the last two years, and no new developments are in the pipeline.

Providence City continues to use water from Broad Hollow Spring and other pieces of the agreement are being actively discussed.

New website and communication plans are in progress. We will continue to develop plans for helping citizens be aware of city updates. The new city PIO will be able to help distribute this information.

Providence City events continue to go well. The Youth Council is preparing to host the Easter egg hunt again. Sauerkraut Days will be August 18-19 with the committee working toward another successful event. The annual tree lighting will continue under the recreation department. The city will not be holding the concerts in the park this year.

The code committee has met and reviewed the entire code multiple times and expects to see an actionable draft from our attorneys soon.

Council Vision & Goals

- Keep 10 projects ongoing on Just Serve

J. Paulsen

- Explore incentives to attract businesses, potentially with a focus on high-tech companies.
- Create a plan for Downtown Providence including a vision for historical city center.
- Create deer fence access way at Providence Highlands.

J Nebeker

- Find citizens throughout Providence that have a desire to preserve the small-town culture and history of Providence and will serve as a voice for the people who own homes in this city and live here.
- Encourage and recommend that the development in Providence remain less dense and slow or stop the developments that are pushing for high-density zoning, especially in areas that should remain as single-family neighborhoods.
- Continue to find City Code that is unnecessary or needs updating.
- Deliver more information to the public about the chemicals that Cache Mosquito Abatement is spraying into the air we breathe and how we can eliminate them from our own personal yards and streets with the submitting of a form.
- Get a photo of myself on the Providence City website and encourage excellent visual design ideas to be a part of the new city website.

K. Alder

The code committee has meet and reviewed the entire code multiple times, and expects to see an actionable draft from our attorneys soon.

Council Vision & Goals

- Report activity and outcomes to the council monthly.
- Establish a precedent to have local Providence businesses post articles in the newsletter and website.
- Reduce newsletter from four pages to two and continually refine to cover citizen requests for information.
- Support all city events with a welcome to participants.
- Standardize zone names to describe the areas more accurately.
- Develop maps to more show possible buildout scenarios.
- Begin the process to update codes, taking out redundant and outdated requirements and standardize nomenclature.
- Encourage outside water conservation.
- Play an active role in local organizations to support Providence in the community that interfaces with the city, attending County Council, Chamber of Commerce and Cache Summit meetings.

Council

- Have all members in attendance at all city events

Reports are made monthly to the full council in the meeting.

Several businesses have been invited and participated in the postings, however there doesn't seem to be enough interest or response to continue the practice.

The newsletter is now primarily electronic with the printed version is never over two pages. We have also increased our footprint on the internet significantly with daily posts on the Pipeline, Facebook, Instagram and

This has been done by either the Mayor or Council members at all events. And will continue

This was accomplished in the January 2023 meeting. We will continue to work keep all zone information updated.

This is an ongoing process but contacts have been made to be able to post the information about possible scenarios.

The Providence City codes were codified but we are continuing to make modifications to fit the needs of the citizens, the county and the state.

This is an ongoing effort between citizens, city, county and state agencies and will continue.

Involved as a member of the Cache Chamber of Commerce- (subcommittees for Membership, Legislative Affairs and the Gala), COG Committee, CMPO Council, Cache County Mayors Association, Chair of the Statewide Land Conservancy Committee and member of the ULCT Legislative Policy Committee.
